

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Contact: Mary Ann Dilling, Executive Director of Fond du Lac Festivals, Inc.
Rachel Dworak, Public Relations Intern
Phone: (920) 923-6555

FOX VALLEY SAVINGS BANK & Y100 BRING BIG ENTERTAINMENT LINE-UP TO WALLEYE WEEKEND

(5/21/09)- Get your toes tapping and feet stomping to this year's country line-up on the Fox Valley Savings Bank & Y100 Music Stage Center at Walleye Weekend.

Kicking off a great weekend on Friday, June 12, will be Chasin' Mason at 4:00 p.m. This Wisconsin based group tours all over the state bringing their country sound laced with rock 'n roll, and are sure to rock the stage at Walleye Weekend.

Following Chasin' Mason will be national recording artist One Flew South starting at 7:30 p.m. Based out of Nashville, Tenn., this trio's debut album, Last of the Good Guys, has produced hits including; "My Kind Of Beautiful" and "Last of the Good Guys".

Closing out the night on Friday will be national recording artist Little Texas. This band, also created out of Nashville, Tenn., has been producing hit songs for about 20 years including; "What Might Have Been", "God Blessed Texas" and "My Love". The group continues to put out new music, but also plays the classics to keep generations of both old and new fans coming to their high-energy shows. Check them out on Music Stage Center from 9:00-10:30 p.m.

"Fox Valley Savings Bank is proud to be a part of this year's music line up. With great bands like Chasin' Mason, Grand Union Band and Little Texas; plus newcomers KatieBeth and Jessie Brown- the Fox Valley Savings Bank & Y100 Stage offers something for everyone!" said Kirsten Quam, marketing director at Fox Valley Savings Bank.

The great country music will continue on Saturday at 11:00 a.m. with up and coming singer, KatieBeth. With her powerful, raw talent at twenty-years-old, she is sure to get the crowd going.

Don't miss country favorite, CrossFire, when they perform at 2:30 p.m. CrossFire features musicians from all over southeastern Wisconsin and has a fresh commitment to giving audiences something different to listen to.

Closing out Saturday night starting at 6:00 p.m., is an up and coming talent out of Indiana, Jessie Brown. Though she may be a newcomer to the country scene, she has a wealth of singing experience, and has been compared to the likes of Martina McBride and Carrie Underwood.

The weekend keeps rocking on Sunday when Tuscan Road takes the stage at 11:30 a.m. This young group is a high energy, crowd driven band playing favorites from Keith Urban, Brad Paisley and many more. Following Tuscan Road and closing out Walleye Weekend will be Grand Union Band. This talented six piece band is best described as "country music that rocks". Playing a blend of new and old, they cover artists such as Kenny Chesney, Gretchen Wilson, Sugarland and Johnny Cash.

All these great country bands playing on Music Stage Center are brought to you by Fox Valley Savings Bank and Y100. For more information on this stage and all the other music stages at Walleye Weekend, visit fdlfest.com.

Walleye Weekend is June 12, 13 and 14 at Lakeside Park in Fond du Lac. This free, family festival is brought to you by Mercury Marine, Yar-Craft Boats, Fox Valley Savings Bank, Michels Corporation, Miller Lite, Pepsi Americas and Charter Communications.

Fond du Lac Festivals, Inc. is a non-profit organization founded in 1983 with a mission to direct, promote and support festivals and special events that showcase the Fond du Lac area community. The organization, with a great deal of help and support from the community, is responsible for Walleye Weekend, Light Up the City and Horicon Bank's Taste of Fond du Lac. These events benefit more than 100 local non-profit organizations.

###