(2/2/2009) Taste of Fond du Lac presented by Horicon Bank is turning up the heat with more than 25 area restaurants tantalizing the public with their delectable treats on February 22. Linstrom's Special Occasion Catering, Fin-n-Feather Supper Club and Moraine Park Technical College Culinary Arts are just three of the restaurants that will be serving delicious appetizers, entrees and desserts from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Fond du Lac County Expo Building.

Linstrom's Special Occasion Catering, 953 E. Johnson St., is returning this year and will provide the following appetizing menu items; Rich Ruben Dip with Parmesan Pita Crackers and Foccacia and Southwest Shrimp Alfredo.

"Taste of Fond du Lac is a huge benefit to all the restaurants, caterers and food service providers that take part. Food brings people together and so does this event," said Heather Linstrom, owner of Linstrom's Special Occasion Catering.

Fin-n-Feather Supper Club, W497 County Rd. SS in Campbellsport, is adding new flavor this year with its Spicy New England Seafood Alfredo and Pumpkin Mousse Topped with Apple Pie Liqueur Sauce.

“The event offers great exposure and a chance for the community to learn about and experience Fin-n-Feather Supper Club, and to see what other dining opportunities there are in the community,” said Tom Krueger from Fin-n-Feather Supper Club.

Moraine Park Technical College Culinary Arts, 235 N. National Ave., is sure to delight the taste buds of this year’s guests with its Cream Puff and Hot Soup and Artisan Bread.

“Taste of Fond du Lac is a great opportunity for the community to see our students at their best,” said James Simmers from Moraine Park Technical College Culinary Arts.
