RESTAURANT LINE-UP CONTINUES TO GROW FOR HORICON BANK'S TASTE OF FOND DU LAC

2/21/11- Taste of Fond du Lac is only a week away and local restaurant kitchens are firing up in preparation. Philly's on 4th, Sombrero's Restaurant and Blue Goose Coffee House are just three of the more than 25 restaurants that will be tempting taste buds this weekend at the newly renovated and expanded Fond du Lac County Expo Building.

Philly's on 4th, 321 E. 4th St., will be serving up some new and classic favorites. Recently under new ownership, they have introduced more food items such as pizza, chicken, hot and honey wings and a fish and shrimp carry-out menu. They also feature an amazing deli with great sandwiches and salads. At Horicon Bank's Taste of Fond du Lac they will be serving up a Pizza Slice, 2 Deep Fried Shrimp, Chicken Wing (Honey or Hot) and a Mini Philly Cheese Steak Sandwich.

"We are looking forward to being involved in such an amazing community event and introducing our new menu items to thousands of Taste attendees," said Phil Moses, of Philly's on 4th.

Sombrero's Restaurant, 445 N. Pioneer Rd., will be bringing the Mexican flavor to the event this year. They will be serving up Chicken Fajitas, Chips & Nacho Cheese and Sopapillas (Cinnamon Chips with Honey & Cinnamon).

“Taste of Fond du Lac gives great exposure to all who participate, and is a great reminder to the guests of what we do and where we are located,” said Jaime Jimenez, owner of Sombrero’s Restaurant. “We are grateful to be a part of the Fond du Lac community where there are good people.”

Blue Goose Coffee House, located in Horicon Bank at 854 E. Johnson St., is also back again this year to serve up some its specialty coffee. They will once again be serving up 6 oz. portions of its Blue Goose Blend Coffee.

“This is a great opportunity to meet new customers,” said Ann Culver, of Blue Goose Coffee House. “Every year we participate we see new customers come into the coffee house in the weeks that follow.”

Taste of Fond du Lac presented by Horicon Bank will take place on Sunday, February 27 from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the newly renovated and expanded Fond du Lac County Expo Building. The day will feature more than 25 area restaurants, a silent auction and live local entertainment.
