Three more restaurants added to this year's Hometown Bank's Taste of Fond du Lac

Fond du Lac (2-19-07) - As Hometown Bank's Taste of Fond du Lac draws closer, three more restaurants are preparing for this year's event that will take place on February 25, 2007. Qdoba Mexican Grill, Terrell's Fisherman's Cove and Jasmin's Java Café & Hanna's Healthy Cup will be tempting taste-goers with some delicious dishes.

Qdoba Mexican Grill, 187 N. Pioneer Road in Fond du Lac, is participating in this year's event for the first time. To fulfill your craving for Mexican food, Qdoba Mexican Grill is excited to be serving delicious Mini Naked Chicken Burritos, Mini Chicken Gumbo and Mini Soup. Ryan White, manager of Qdoba said, "This event is going to be a great way to get Qdoba's name out in the community. This event is going to give us the opportunity to let the people of Fond du Lac know that we are in town."

Terrell's Fisherman's Cove, N9176 Hwy 151 in Fond du Lac, will be participating in this year's event. Bret Terrell, newest owner of Terrell's Fisherman's Cove, said, "This event will allow the community to know more about us. It will give them a casual dining experience with an upscale flavor." Terrell's Fisherman's Cove is excited to announce that they will be serving enticing Seafood Rosa House Soup and Seafood Cakes with Aoli and Citrus Remulade. Currently, Terrell's Fisherman's Cove is under new management after being closed for nine months. Bret Terrell has stated, "When I took over, a lot of people didn't know that it was under new management. A new style has emerged and I want to get the word out to the Fond du Lac Community." Be sure to come and check out some great seafood!

Jasmin's Java Café & Hanna's Healthy Cup, P.O. Box #1213 in Fond du Lac, will be showcasing some delightful Classic Black Coffee, Red Rooibus Tea and Schokolade Cocoa to tempt the taste buds of the early morning risers and coffee lovers who enjoy a nice, healthy cup of coffee. Lebron Bryant, proprietor of Jasmin's Java Café & Hanna's Healthy Cup, stated, "We believe the current global demand for a healthier lifestyle has been pioneering for quite some time. With this great cultural shift momentum in leaps and bounds, we believe this is one of those opportunities for everyone."

Check out the great food at any of these booths and more at Hometown Bank's Taste of Fond du Lac's new day and time. This year the event will be taking place on Sunday, February 25, 2007, from 11:00AM-6:00PM at the Fond du Lac County Fairgrounds Expo Center, 17th St. and Martin Ave. The day will feature delicious appetizers, entrees and desserts, talented musical acts, and a silent auction. Tickets are available at all Hometown Bank locations, Wegner's Office Supply, and the Fond du Lac Area Convention and Visitors Bureau. Advance tickets are $1.50 or $2 at the door and children under 5 are admitted for free. Food tickets are only 50 cents each. For more information, visit the Fond du Lac Festivals website at www.fdlfest.com.

Not only will there be great food and entertainment, but taste-goers will also have the opportunity to watch the Wisconsin Badger vs. Ohio State Buckeyes basketball game on 35" and 42" TV's. Fond du Lac Festivals will be teaming up with Silica Appliances and Electronics and Charter Communications to provide coverage for this year's big game. Great food, entertainment and sports—what else could a Wisconsinite ask for? Be sure to stop by the Fond du Lac Expo building on Sunday, February 25th, 2007 from 11 AM-6 PM.

Fond du Lac Festivals, Inc. is a non-profit organization founded in 1983 with a mission to direct, promote, and support festivals and special events that showcase the Fond du Lac community. The organization, with a great deal of help and support from the community, is responsible for Walleye Weekend, Light Up the City, and Hometown Bank's Taste of Fond du Lac. These events benefit more than 100 local non-profit organizations.

Hometown Bank's Taste of Fond du Lac is sponsored by Hometown Bank, Charter Communications, Hopper's Silk Screening and All Star Trophy, Goose Island Honker's Ale, WFRV CBS 5, Pepsi Americas, News-Talk AM 1450 KFIZ, K107.1 FM and the Reporter.
